

For Immediate Release

October 10, 2007

Senate Budget Committee Ranking Member Judd Gregg Names Emma Post as Press Secretary

Senator Judd Gregg, ranking member of the Senate Budget Committee, today announced that Emma Post will serve as the Press Secretary of the Budget Committee, effective immediately.

“I am pleased that Emma has agreed to join the Budget Committee,” said Senator Gregg. “Her experience in media relations will be an asset to the Committee as we continue to inform the media and the American public about the Committee’s efforts to restrain spending, lower the deficit, advocate for pro-growth tax policies, and address the looming challenges posed by growing entitlement programs.”

In her new role, Post will assist Senate Budget Committee Communications Director Betsy Holahan in the minority press office with day-to-day communications activities.

Prior to joining the Senate Budget Committee, Post worked in public relations at Hill & Knowlton as an Account Executive. Her background on Capitol Hill includes stints with Congressman Bob Ney (R-OH) and Senator George Voinovich (R-OH).

Post, a native of Shaker Heights, Ohio, is a graduate of Bucknell University. Her media contact information is 202-224-0642.